Participation on an AmaWaterways TMP OTR sailing is subject to AmaWaterways' Travel Industry Partner Code of Conduct, as follows:

AmaWaterways truly values travel advisors as partners and friends in the industry who have contributed to our success. In appreciation of this support, we are always pleased to welcome you onboard so that you may experience first-hand AmaWaterways' award-winning cruises, hospitality, commitment to exceptional service and the very best in River Cruising.

As a condition of cruising with us, we greatly appreciate that travel advisors and their companions follow our Travel Industry Code of Conduct. This policy is not intended to be all inclusive, however, should serve as a general guideline to help ensure all guests, including those from the industry, are able to enjoy their experience while traveling with AmaWaterways.

During the entire AmaWaterways land and cruise package, travel advisors and their guests may not:

- Exhibit disruptive behavior, as determined by AmaWaterways, including excessive alcohol consumption, loud and offensive behavior, unpleasant treatment (verbal or physical abuse) of Cruise Manager, Captain, nautical and hotel service crew or other guests.
- Engage in any illegal activity including but not limited to the use of false identification, theft, vandalism, possession or use of illegal drugs, or providing alcohol to a minor.
- Disclose special FAM rates paid to AmaWaterways.
- Discuss their professional travel services, promote other river cruise lines or solicit business of any nature from other guests. This excludes professional discussions with other travel advisors that may be on board during the FAM.
- Demand complimentary stateroom upgrades or other preferential treatment or exceptional services.
- Refuse to pay any onboard personal expenses specifically bar charges, laundry services, massage or hair salon and transfers.
- Disregard safety instructions.

At the discretion of AmaWaterways, any of the above actions could result in immediate disembarkment of a travel advisor and their companion. AmaWaterways will not be responsible for financial compensation for cruise fare paid nor additional accommodation or travel expenses following the removal from the ship. A full report will also be sent to the travel advisor's immediate supervisor or head of the affiliated network.

AmaWaterways thanks you for your cooperation with this code. Like you, our goal is to add value to the lives of the people we interact with by treating them with dignity and respect. We appreciate your support and look forward to welcoming you onboard soon.
